Business Meeting

Dr. Kathy Brown (Mu) called the business meeting to order. She recognized first-time attendees and those serving at the state level for the first time.

Missy Collins (Alpha Omega) recognized special guests including past presidents Becky Avera (Xi), Dr. Corinne Daniel (Rho), Jo Davis (Alpha Omicron), Gail Ford (Alpha Omega), Gail Springstead (Delta), and Virginia McChesney (Iota). White roses and photos were placed at the Past President's table for Mavis Johnson and Jean Barber.

Inspiration

Gail Ford (Delta) gave an inspirational poem about Past Presidents Mavis Johnson and Jean Barber.

Pledge of Allegiance

Marie Boatright (Alpha) led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Correspondence

Sid Morrison (Delta Alpha) read thank you notes, in the absence of corresponding secretary Betty Richardson (Beta Kappa). Patti Newman (Beta Theta) thanked members for sending get well cards and Jo Hicks (Zeta) thanked members for birthday cards, as well as a donation to the Boylston Memorial Foundation in her name, from Gail and Bill Ford (Alpha Omega). Dr. Lynn Skinner (Mu) received letters from International reflecting their appreciation for our donations to the Emergency Fund in memory of Jean Gray and the Eunah Temple Holden Leadership fund in honor of Dr. Carolyn Rant.

Rules of Order

Acting Parliamentarian, Gail Springstead (Delta) provided the rules of the day.

Minutes Approval

Cheryl Goff (Alpha Iota) shared that the minutes from the September 22, 2018 Executive Board Meeting and the minutes of the April 27, 2019 GSO State Convention and Executive Board meeting had been approved by the Minutes Approval Committee. A copy of the minutes have been published on the GSO website and filed in the GSO office.

Treasurer

Dr. Lynn Skinner (Mu) shared the treasurer's report:

Dr. Skinner (Mu) thanked the chapter treasurers for their work with the new dues procedures. She reported that 64 of 69 chapters completed form 15, the Annual Report of Chapter Treasurers, by the deadline. Sixty percent of chapters have already filed their 990 form with the IRS before the November 1 deadline. Our state currently has 2,480 members and we are operating below budget. Dr. Skinner (Mu) explained the negative balance in the Leadership and Building accounts. The emergency fund balance has increased thanks to the generosity of members and chapters.

Finance Committee

Ann Banaszak (Epsilon) shared the role of the Finance Committee and reported that the committee is monitoring the best investment possibilities for available funds. She reminded members to get approval before making purchases and thanked members for donations to help restore the emergency fund.

President's Report

Dr. Kathy Brown (Mu) shared her experiences at the Arts and Humanities Conference in Asheville, North Carolina. Three GSO members held leadership roles at the conference; Gail Ford (Alpha Omega), who led the session for first-time attendees; Dr. Hanna Fowler (Alpha Theta), who introduced the new International leadership program, DKG Ignite; and Virginia McChesney (Iota), who penned a choral reading, "Arts and Humanities." Several members assisted with Georgia Night-Gail Springstead (Delta), Dr. Lynn Skinner (Mu), Dr. Maria Valeria-Gold (Gamma Alpha), and Virginia McChesney (Iota). Dr. Brown (Mu), Gail Springstead (Delta), Virginia McChesney (Iota), and Dr. Lynn Skinner (Mu) also attended the Leadership Conference in Des Moines, Iowa.

The executive committee, district directors and GSO committee chairs met in Macon this summer to plan for the 2019-2021 biennium.

Dr. Brown (Mu) thanked the GSO Finance committee for supporting members and activities this summer.

Dr. Brown (Mu) asked members to invite her and the GSO officers to chapter meetings to share ideas.

Susan Pope (Alpha Theta, District 4) and Shelly Foster (Alpha Tau, District 6) were installed as District Directors by Maggie Oyler (Iota).

Dr. Brown (Mu) presented a wooden bowl to Dr. Lynn Skinner (Mu) for her work in training the treasurers. She also thanked the district directors who helped to organize the training sessions in all six districts including District I, Marie Boatright (Alpha) and Dr. Joanne Lee (Beta Delta); District II, Betsy Barb (Alpha Kappa) and Gwen White

(Gamma Chi); District III, Dianne Sharpe (Epsilon) and Lynda Woodall (Beta Gamma); District IV, Susan Pope (Alpha Theta); and District V, Lisa Gilligan (Alpha Delta) and Jan Hattermann (Sigma); and District VI, Diane Padgett (Beta Theta).

Bylaws and Standing Rules

Dr. Brown (Mu) thanked Dr. Hanna Fowler (Alpha Theta) and her committee for their work in updating and revising the Georgia State Organization Bylaws. The bylaws were reviewed in April 2019 and are in full compliance with the Constitution and International Standing Rules.
